● NEW SPRING 2013 ABDO Publishing Company Accelerated Reader

REVIEWS

"These brief profiles of popular celebrities are visual feasts..."

- School Library Journal, Series Made Simple Supplement, November 2008

Prince William, Kate Middleton

"...these books are a good fit for beginner and transitional readers requiring basic information for biography assignments. They will also appeal to reluctant readers desiring to know more about these celebrated royals."

- School Library Journal, February 2012

This series introduces readers to the artists who have created some of the most memorable illustrations in children's literature. Each book covers the artist's inspiring career, from their early childhood sketches to their well-loved, award-winning books.

REVIEW

“The books give an accurate inside look at the organs and their roles, placement, and operation, as well as related organs and systems. The illustrations incorporate scientific images and labeled body parts. Final panels cover safety and health tips, and a closing diagram of the featured organ’s main features provides a quick review. The format of these books will draw readers.”

A Bully-Free World

Grades Pre K-4
Reading Level: Grade 2

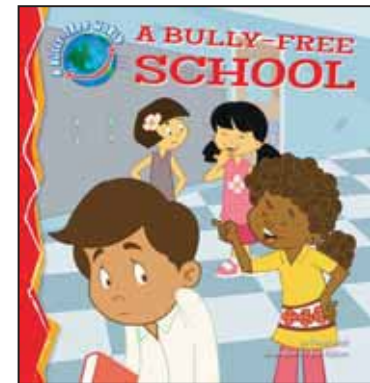

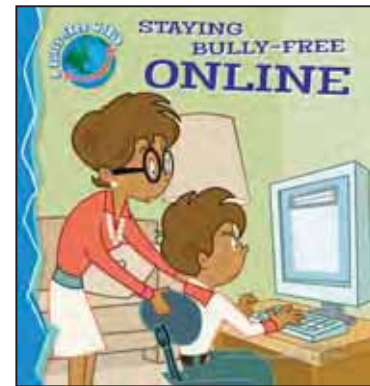

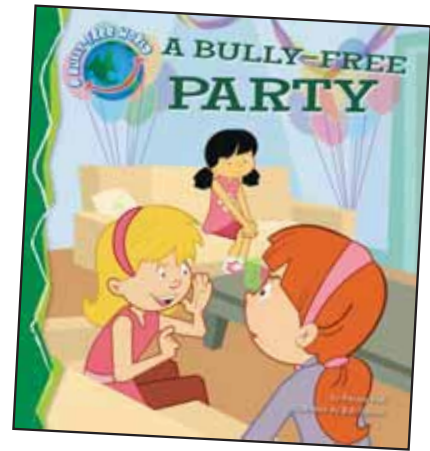

Bullying behaviors are learned at an early age, so it is more important than ever to reach the youngest audience and educate them on what bullying behavior is and how it is stopped. A Bully-Free World follows a group of young characters at Niceville Elementary School who bully each other and learn how to change their behavior. Young readers will learn what bullying is, how to stand up for themselves and others, when to report a situation to an adult, and other key advice in order to make a Bully-Free World!

Aligned to Common Core Standards & Correlated to State Standards
Dewey: 302-371

REVIEW

“Situations (including name calling, hitting, rumor spreading, and online cruelty) are realistic and age-appropriate for the intended audience.... This set will help readers understand what bullying is and why it is so hurtful, and offer them workable solutions to cope with it. These titles are helpful for individual use, but they are also suitable for classrooms, making them strong choices for primary-grade libraries.”

REVIEW

The Story of the Negro Leagues

“This slender volume offers a brief but informative introduction to...the creation of the Negro leagues, introduces the outstanding players, and describes the difficulties faced by teams traveling through the segregated South. The book’s attractive design features wide-spaced lines of text, restrained use of color, and archival photos of individual players and teams. Make room for this volume.”

CHAPTER BOOKS

Ivy & Bean

Grades 1-4
Reading Level: Grade 3

The moment they saw each other, Bean and Ivy knew they wouldn't be friends. But when Bean plays a joke on her sister, Nancy, and has to hide—quick—Ivy comes to the rescue, proving that sometimes the best of friends are people never meant to like each other. Vibrant characters and lots of humor make this a charming—and addictive—series.

BOOK BINS

Book bins are a fun and easy way to bring graphic novels into any program! With the purchase of a book bin, you will gain access to our new program guides and discussion questions.

LESSON PLANS

Lesson plans feature step-by-step instructions for engaging and inventive superhero or Star Wars themed activities. Activities can be customized and combined to create weeklong or even monthlong programs, and the guides make it easy for even a novice to lead. Subject areas include arts & crafts, character education, drama, interactive reading, media & writing, movement & fitness, and STEM. Applicable Common Core State Standards and Presidential Youth Fitness Program areas noted.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Discussion questions feature open-ended, leveled questions, and can be used to prompt discussion of individual books and a variety of topics. Written specifically for each book, the questions include connections to Common Core State Standards & STEM topics. Available for select Marvel & Star Wars books.

VOCABULARY

Our graphic novels actively build literacy through vocabulary. Vocabulary lists are available on our Web site for free and include more than 5,500 high-level vocabulary terms, including many STEM-related terms.

FREE WEBCAST

Visit School Library Journal at www.slj.com for our accredited webcast that includes information from our 10-school pilot program, tips, expert advice & more!

REVIEWS

“The timeless appeal of Holmes and Watson, reinforced with large panels on each page, clear colors, and easily readable font in high-contrast white bubbles, will make this set of adventures in demand with emerging, reluctant, and struggling readers. This series is a nice way to introduce readers to Sherlock Holmes.”

— Library Media Connection, October 2010

The Adventure of the Dancing Men

“A solid choice to introduce young readers to the distinctly flavored pleasures of Holmesian whodunits.”

● NEW SPRING 2013

Start your engines! Starbridge Media and NASCAR joined forces to create the first ever officially licensed NASCAR comic book series for the NASCAR Library Collection. Dashiell James was the bottom of the crew until a radioactive accident gives him superpowers. Now, Dashiell is the Jimmy Dash: lead driver for Team Flatstock. Great sci-fi plots with NASCAR as a backdrop.

IP Authentication (Access at Your School or Library — No Username or Password Needed)

*OPTIONAL

With the IP address or range of your network, students & teachers will be able to open all your Abdo Digital hosted products with no need for a username or password while they're onsite at your school or library. Multiple, simultaneous users allowed per site. Access can be from links in your OPAC, or through our Bookshelf and Web site access options.

List the IP address or range of your network below.

*Please note: Our IP authentication service is not available if your district shares an IP range. Check for our Referring URL services for related options for on-site access through your secure automation system URL address.

Referring URL Authentication (Access from Home, School, or Anywhere — No Username or Password Needed)

*OPTIONAL

Provide the URL address(es) below, and we will authenticate your Web site so students and patrons can access all your Abdo Digital hosted titles from home or school with no need for a username or password. Multiple, simultaneous users allowed per site. Options for our Referring URL service include your automation system's URL address or your school or library's web address. Does your district share an IP range? We can authenticate your library for easy onsite access by using your library's Automation System URL.

URL address (list school or library Web address, or automation system Web address):

*Please note: All Referring URL options must be password-protected sites for either students that attend that school building or patrons of your library branch. Abdo Digital hosted titles are site-licensed and cannot be shared on unsecure Web URLs in a district or community library. We can help test your site or answer any questions so your collection is easy to access for your students or patrons.

We keep your processing specs on file, including digital titles!

Call us to see if your library's specs are in our system, or to get set up so we can serve you faster!
