

CONTINENTS

Africa

Tell the Tale

Chapter Two of this book discusses Africa's climates and landforms. Write 200 words that tell what it might be like to visit the African savanna, desert, or rainforest. Describe the sights and sounds of this environment. Be sure to set the scene, offer a sequence of events, and write a conclusion.

CONTINENTS

Africa

Surprise Me

Learning about the cultural traditions of African countries can be interesting and surprising. After reading this book, what two or three facts about Africa's cultures did you find most surprising? Write a short paragraph about each. Describe what you found surprising and why.

CONTINENTS

Africa

Dig Deeper

After reading this book, what questions do you still have about Africa? Do you want to learn more about the daily lives of African people? Are you curious about the wildlife in Africa? Write down one or two questions that can guide you in doing research. With an adult's help, find a few reliable resources about this topic that can help answer your questions. Write two or three sentences about how you did your research and what you learned from it.

CONTINENTS

Africa

Another View

There are many different sources about Africa's history. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about African history. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book. What is the point of view of each author? How are the sources similar? How are the sources different? Why do you think they are similar or different?