

Herb Gardens

Another View

This book talks about how to grow an herb garden. Ask a librarian, teacher, or another adult to help you find another book about growing herbs. Think about the information you found in the two sources. Then write a paragraph that compares and contrasts the information they provide. What information is the same? What information is different?

Herb Gardens

Say What?

Learning about gardening can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find four words in this book you've never heard before. Look up their meanings in a dictionary. Then use each word in a new sentence.

Herb Gardens

Surprise Me

Chapter Two discusses things to consider when planting an herb garden. After reading this chapter, what two or three facts surprised you the most? Write a few sentences about each one. Why did you find each fact surprising?

Herb Gardens

Photo Evidence

Pictures can sometimes explain things better than words. Choose one of the photos in this book and look at it again. How does it relate to the information in that chapter? Write a few sentences about how the picture helps you better understand the information.

