

Pollinator Gardens

Another View

This book talks about growing a pollinator garden. Ask a librarian, teacher, or another adult to help you find another book about pollinator gardens. Think about the information you found in the two sources. Write a paragraph that compares and contrasts the information they provide. What information is the same? What information is different?

Pollinator Gardens

Say What?

Learning how to garden can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find four words in this book you've never heard before. Look up their meanings in a dictionary. Then use each word in a new sentence.

Pollinator Gardens

Surprise Me

Chapter One discusses the importance of pollinators. After reading this chapter, what two or three facts surprised you the most? Write a few sentences describing why you found each fact surprising.

Pollinator Gardens

Photo Evidence

Pictures can sometimes explain concepts better than words. Choose one of the photos in this book and look at it again. How does it relate to the information in the chapter? Write a few sentences about how the photo helps you better understand the information.

