

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK

Another View

This book is about Acadia National Park and its history. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about the history of Acadia.

Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK

Take a Stand

Some areas of the Acadia National Park are off-limits to visitors. This protects the fragile coastal environment of these areas. Do you think visitors should be allowed to access these places? Why or why not?

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK

You Are There

This book discusses the ecosystems, plants, and animals of Acadia National Park. Imagine you travel to the park. Write a letter home telling your friends what you see. What do you notice about the different ecosystems? How are they different? Be sure to add plenty of details to your letter.

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK

Tell the Tale

This book discusses some of the many recreational activities and special features of Acadia National Park. Imagine you are planning a trip to the park. Create an itinerary of several different activities in the park and describe what you hope to see. How many days will you need to be there to see and do everything on your list?
