

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Tell the Tale

Chapter One of this book explores one person's experience seeing Old Faithful erupt in Yellowstone National Park. Imagine you and your friends are taking a trip to the park. Write 200 words about what you want to see. Why are these sites important? Why do you want to visit them?

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Why Do I Care?

Maybe you've never visited Yellowstone. But that doesn't mean you can't think about why it's important to preserve natural spaces. How do natural spaces and parks affect your life? Have you visited any other national parks? How might your life be different if national parks didn't exist?

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Another View

This book talks about the ways invasive species can harm healthy ecosystems. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about this practice. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

You Are There

This book discusses how the Hayden Expedition led to Yellowstone becoming a national park.

Imagine you joined this early journey to Yellowstone. Write a letter home telling your friends what you saw and experienced. What do you think is the most important things people should know about? Be sure to add plenty of details to your letter.
