You Are There

Chapter Four discusses the musical Hamilton.

Imagine you are at a performance of this show.

Write a letter home telling your friends about the experience. What do you notice about the songs, costumes, and story? Be sure to add plenty of details to your notes.

Another View

This book talks about oral storytelling. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about this topic. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar to one another? How are they different?
