

SPOKEN LANGUAGE

Tell the Tale

Chapter One of this book discusses a student's experience learning a new language in France. Imagine you are making a similar trip to a foreign country. Write 200 words about the culture and languages you encounter on your trip. How could you practice language speaking skills?

SPOKEN LANGUAGE

Another View

This book talks about spoken languages. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find a second source about this topic. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar to one another? How are they different?

SPOKEN LANGUAGE

Say What?

Reading about languages can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find five words in this book you've never heard before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Then write the meanings in your own words and use each word in a new sentence.

SPOKEN LANGUAGE

Why Do I Care?

Maybe you do not speak more than one language.
But many people do. Has reading this book made you consider learning a new spoken language?
Which one, and why?
