

HILLARY CLINTON

Another View

This book talks about Hillary Clinton and her run for president in 2016. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about this event. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?

HILLARY CLINTON

You Are There

This book discusses some of Clinton's work as secretary of state. Imagine you are a US diplomat working for her. Write a letter to a friend to describe Clinton's work. What causes did she support? What problems did she experience?

HILLARY CLINTON

Surprise Me

Chapter Two discusses Clinton's childhood and education. After reading this book, what two or three facts about Clinton's life did you find most surprising? Write a few sentences about each fact. Why did you find each fact surprising?

HILLARY CLINTON

Say What?

Reading about politics and elections can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find five words in this book you've never heard before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Then write the meanings in your own words, and use each word in a new sentence.
