

Lion

Another View

Chapter Two of this book talked about a lion's life cycle. As you know, every source can be different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another reliable source about lions and their life cycles. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What was the point of view of each source? How were they similar? How were they different?

Lion

Take a Stand

Chapter Five discussed lion hunting. Many people believe it is wrong to hunt lions since their populations are so low. Other people argue that lion hunting is a good way to make money, which can be used to protect lions and other animals. Do you think lion hunting should be allowed? Write a short essay explaining your opinion.

Lion

Surprise Me

Learning about lions can be interesting and surprising. What two or three facts from this book did you find most surprising? Write a few sentences describing these facts and why you found them surprising.

Lion

You Are There

Imagine that you own a cattle ranch in Tanzania, Africa. Recently lions have killed several of your cattle. How does this make you feel? What will you do about this? Does this change the way you view lion hunting?