

CYBERCRIME

You Are There

This book talks about the steps cybercrime victims can take to protect themselves. Imagine that you have been the victim of a cybercrime. What would you do? Write an essay explaining the steps you would take. Be sure to add plenty of details.

CYBERCRIME

Take a Stand

This book discusses different types of hackers. Some companies hire white-hat hackers to help them find flaws in their computer systems. Do you think this is a good solution? Do you think all companies should do this? Why or why not?

CYBERCRIME

Say What?

Studying the internet and cybercrimes can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find five words in this book that you've never heard before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Then write the meanings in your own words, and use each word in a new sentence.

CYBERCRIME

Another View

This book explores the connection between the internet and cybercrimes. As you know, every source is different. Ask an adult to help you find another source about this topic. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?
