Chameleons

Say What?

Learning about chameleons can mean learning new vocabulary. Look for five words in this book that you've never seen before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Using your own words, write down the meaning of each word. Then use each word in a sentence.

Why Do I Care?

Chapter Five talks about why some chameleon species are in danger of extinction. Why should you care if chameleons die out if you don't live near these animals? Write down two or three reasons humans should care about chameleons.

Dig Deeper

After reading this book, what questions do you still have about chameleons? Do you want to learn more about how chameleons defend themselves against enemies? Do you have questions about their color-changing abilities? Would you like more information on how to take care of a pet chameleon? Write down one or two questions that can guide you in doing research. With an adult's help, find a few reliable sources that can offer more facts. Write a few sentences about how you did your research and what you learned from it.
