

MAMMAL GROUPS

Dig Deeper

After reading this book, what questions do you still have about mammal groups? With an adult's help, find a few reliable sources that can help you answer your questions. Write a paragraph about what you learned.

MAMMAL GROUPS

Say What?

Studying mammal behavior can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find five words in this book you've never heard before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Then write the meanings in your own words and use each word in a new sentence.

MAMMAL GROUPS

You Are There

This book describes Mexican free-tailed bat colonies. Imagine you are visiting a cave with a bat colony. Write a letter home telling your friends what you have found. What do you notice about the cave? What kind of bat behavior do you see? Be sure to add plenty of detail to your notes.

Another View

This book talks about animal migration in the Serengeti. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find a second source about migration in this region. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?
