REPTILE GROUPS

Take a Stand

This book talks about the natural habitats that reptiles need to survive. Some of these habitats are threatened by factors such as climate change. Many people work to protect threatened reptiles and their habitats. Do you think more should be done to protect reptiles? Why or why not?

REPTILE GROUPS

Why Do I Care?

You may not live in a place where there are many reptiles. But that doesn't mean you can't think about why reptiles are important. How do reptiles work together? What role do they play in the ecosystem? Why is it important to learn about these animals?

REPTILE GROUPS

You Are There

This book discusses hawksbill sea turtles that live in the ocean around Hawaii. Imagine you are traveling with scientists who study these turtles. Write a letter home telling your friends what you see during your travels. What do you notice about the sea turtles and their behavior? Be sure to add plenty of detail to your notes.
