NAVY SEALS

Say What?

Learning about US Navy SEALs can mean learning a lot of new vocabulary. Find five words in this book that you've never heard or seen before. Find out what these words mean. Using your own ideas, write down the meaning of each word. Then use each word in a sentence.

NAVY SEALS

Another View

There are many different sources about US Navy SEALs. Each source is a little bit different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find a reliable source on US Navy SEALs. Then write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view to the ideas in this book. How are the sources similar? How are the sources different? Why do you think they are similar or different?

NAVY SEALS

Tell the Tale

Chapter One discusses the US Navy SEALs' killing of Osama bin Laden. Write 200 words that tell the true story of this event. Be sure to set the scene, develop a sequence of events, and offer a conclusion.

NAVY SEALS

You Are There

Chapter Four of this book discusses US Navy SEAL training. Imagine that you are training to become a SEAL. Write 300 words about your experience.

What things do you learn? What tests will you take? How do you spend your days? How does your body feel? How do you feel at the end?
