

WOMEN IN FASHION

Say What?

Fashion design and the fashion world have their own vocabulary. Find five words in this book you've never heard before. Use a dictionary to find out what they mean. Then write the meanings in your own words. Use each word in a new sentence.

WOMEN IN FASHION

Tell the Tale

Chapter Four of this book talks about new fashion designers. Imagine you are beginning a career in fashion design. Design a small collection of at least five pieces. Describe your collection in at least 200 words. Tell what materials you would use to make them. Where would these pieces be worn?

WOMEN IN FASHION

Another View

This book talks about women fashion designers. As you know, every source is different. Ask a librarian or another adult to help you find another source about women fashion designers. Write a short essay comparing and contrasting the new source's point of view with that of this book's author. What is the point of view of each author? How are they similar and why? How are they different and why?

WOMEN IN FASHION

You Are There

This book discusses some challenges Ann Lowe faced as an early African-American designer. Imagine you are in her place trying to run a design business. Write a letter home telling your friends what it's like. How do you feel that you are not credited for much of your work? Be sure to add plenty of detail to your letter.

